

ONTARIO FOOD PROTECTION ASSOCIATION

Kevin Urbanic

Director General for the Ontario Area of the Canadian Food Inspection Agency

Masters of Science degrees in biochemistry and microbiology from the University of Guelph

20 years working for the Canadian Food Inspection Agency (CFIA)

Kevin Urbanic is the Director General for the Ontario Area of the Canadian Food Inspection Agency where he oversees the administration and delivery of the Agency's inspection programs in Ontario. He earned his bachelor's and Masters of Science degrees in biochemistry and microbiology from the University of Guelph and has spent the past 20 years working for the Canadian Food Inspection Agency (CFIA). Beginning as a food inspector in 2002, Kevin has worked in various inspection and management roles within the Agency's Operations Branch. More recently, Kevin worked on the implementation of the Agency's new electronic export certification system. Outside of work, Kevin is an avid triathlete who also enjoys camping and golf.