

Moses Akingbade Bio

Moses Akingbade is the Vice President, Quality, of VersaCold Logistics Services, which has recently been acquired by Lineage Logistics. In this role, he supports VersaCold's operating Quality Management System (QMS), Food Safety / Regulatory compliance and Industrial Engineering functions.

Moses has over two decades of experience in research, food manufacturing, consumer goods, food retail, supply chain and logistics. Prior to VersaCold, Moses held increasing senior roles in companies including Denbar Food Group, Sobeys Inc., Woolwich Dairy (Saputo) and Canada Bread.

Moses is passionate about helping delivering results to achieve organization's objectives. He has a wealth of knowledge and experience in change management, food safety, quality management systems and scientific research.

He holds a BSc in Applied Chemistry and Biology from Ryerson University. He is a certified GFSI Food Safety Lead Auditor and holds a certification in Change Management. He is currently an MBA candidate at the Strayer University/Jack Welch Management Institute.