

Kevin Urbanic Bio

Kevin is the Director General for the Ontario Area of the Canadian Food Inspection Agency where he oversees the administration and delivery of the Agency's inspection programs in Ontario. He earned his Bachelors and Masters of Science degrees in biochemistry and microbiology from the University of Guelph and has spent the past 20 years working for the Canadian Food Inspection Agency (CFIA). Beginning as a food inspector in 2002, Kevin has worked in various inspection and management roles within the Agency's Operations Branch. Outside of work, Kevin is an avid curler, golfer and cyclist.